LIONS & LAMBS
LIVING TOGETHER . . .
MASS ENJOYMENT
FOR 6 GUESTS

Savor a wine-paired lunch for six guests with Moone-Tsai at Brasswood Bar & Kitchen in St. Helena. Relax and enjoy Moone-Tsai's remarkable limited production wines, whose subtle balance of elegance and structure reflect the noble lion, protector of Bacchus, who appears on their label.

Lay down that 6L from Lamborn Family Vineyards, because large format bottles age at half the speed of their 750ml counterparts. Wine ages as air moves in and out of the cork, interacting with the flavor components of a wine. With large format bottles, you've got the same surface area for air transfer, that tiny cork, but a much larger volume of wine to age.

IF I COULD SAVE WINE IN A BOTTLE . . .

. . . the first thing that I'd like to do is save it in a large format bottle—like magnums from Arkenstone, Clif Family Winery, Cornerstone Cellars, Davis Estates and Ladera Vineyards.

Larger wine bottle sizes are well-suited for longer aging of wines. It is a fact that wine from larger format wine bottles age more slowly, and possibly even develop more complexity and nuance than wines from smaller wine bottle sizes. While you're waiting for those magnums to age, indulge yourself now with the following tours and tastings.

Join Arkenstone for a VIP tour and tasting for four guests, which includes a walk through their extensive underground production caves and vineyards—get a first-hand look at what is happening in wine production and in the vineyards at the time of year you visit—and tasting Arkenstone wines overlooking the vineyards, woodlands, and meadow, or if you prefer, “down under” in their cave lounge.

Cornerstone Cellars will treat four guests to their Single Vineyard Cabernet Flight Tasting at their tasting salon set among artwork curated by AERENA Galleries & Gardens in the historic train depot in the heart of Yountville.

Davis Estates offers serious wine lovers a behind-the-scenes tour—from a walk through their vineyards and estate, to their Howard Backen-designed winery and cave system. Enjoy a seated tasting for four guests of Davis Estates wines crafted by Walter Leiva and Phase V wines by Philippe Melka. Their executive chef will prepare a wine-paired menu that will take you on a true wine and food adventure.

Ladera Vineyards' Portfolio Tasting for four guests is the perfect tasting to fully experience the breadth of Ladera. Featuring an array of six acclaimed Ladera wines accompanied by a complimentary delectable cheese plate.
